The Portal has been designed with two-factor authentication to ensure security of policy information across the Internet. The authentication code will be sent to the same email address as your initial user name and temporary password notification.

Initial access to the Portal

You can request access to the Portal from your organization's TradEnable contact, or from your contact in AIG. Once your user profile has been created you will receive an email with username and a temporary password. When you follow the link in the confirmation email, you will need to set a permanent password before using the Portal.

NOTE: Once you have clicked the log-in link, you may wish to bookmark the web address for faster access in the future.

Two-factor authentication

To enhance security of data on the Portal, a two-factor authentication is in place. When you log on to the Portal initially, and every three months, you will be asked to enter an authentication code which will be sent to you by email.

TWO FACTOR AUTHENTICATION

To secure your BROKER JUPITER access, American International Group Inc has sent a 6-digit verification code to your email address j*@a*g.com.

Please enter the code received in the box below to connect to the Portal.

Entering your authentication code

Use the code to verify that you are logging in yourself and to indicate that you are using a trusted computer. The system will ask you to reverify the trusted computer every three months.

NOTE: If you do not indicate that you are using a trusted computer then the system will use two-factor authentication each time you log in.

TRUST THIS COMPUTER?

This is a trusted computer. I wish to do without two-factor authentication on this one.

I can trust this computer for up to 3 months.

Yes, this is a trusted computer.

No, this is not a trusted computer.

A trusted computer is a device that you have already signed in to using two-factor authentication and validate as a trusted computer. It is a device we can recognise is yours because a connection has been proving between the referenced email address and the computer.
